

Employee Policy Handbook

Sample Company — For RAG Chatbot Testing

1. Working Hours

The standard working schedule is Monday to Friday, from 9:30 AM to 6:30 PM. Employees are expected to be punctual and available during their scheduled working hours. A lunch break of up to one hour is provided.

2. Leave Policy

Full-time employees are entitled to 18 paid leave days per calendar year. Employees should request planned leave at least three working days in advance. Emergency leave should be communicated to the reporting manager as soon as possible. Unused paid leave may be carried forward for up to 10 days into the following year.

3. Work From Home

Employees may request work from home with prior approval from their reporting manager. Regular work-from-home arrangements require approval from the department head. Employees working remotely must remain reachable during normal working hours.

4. Attendance

Employees should maintain regular attendance and inform their manager if they expect to be late or absent. Repeated unapproved absences may result in disciplinary action according to company procedures.

5. Probation

New employees normally undergo a six-month probation period. During probation, performance, attendance, teamwork, and role-specific skills are reviewed. The company may extend the probation period when additional assessment is required.

6. Salary and Payroll

Salary is processed monthly and is normally credited on or before the last working day of the month. Employees should report payroll discrepancies to the HR department within seven working days.

7. Benefits

Eligible full-time employees may receive health insurance, accidental coverage, and other benefits according to their employment terms. Benefit eligibility may vary by role, employment status, and tenure.

8. Code of Conduct

Employees are expected to behave professionally, treat colleagues respectfully, protect confidential company information, and follow applicable workplace policies. Harassment, discrimination, threats, and misuse of company resources are not permitted.

9. Remote Work Security

Employees working remotely must use company-approved devices and security practices where applicable. Confidential company information should not be shared with unauthorized persons or stored on unapproved services.

10. Resignation and Notice Period

Employees who resign must submit a written resignation to their reporting manager and HR. The standard notice period is 30 calendar days unless the employment agreement specifies a different period.

11. Public Holidays

The company observes public holidays according to the annual holiday calendar issued by HR. The holiday calendar may vary based on the employee's work location.

12. Contacting HR

Employees can contact the HR department for questions about leave, payroll, benefits, workplace policies, or employment documentation.

Note: This is a fictional sample policy document created for testing a RAG chatbot. It is not an actual company's employment policy.